

The Salisbury Symphony

presents

Witches, Wizards and the Music of

Harry Potter

Saturday, Oct. 19th, 7:30pm

Stanly Agri-Civic Center
26032 Newt Rd # B, Albemarle, NC 28001

Ian Passmore, Conductor

Step into the magical world of Harry Potter with the Salisbury Symphony!

This enchanting program delves deep into the iconic music from the beloved series, masterfully bringing to life the adventures of Harry, Hermione, and Ron. Narrated by a special community guest, this concert is designed to be a fully immersive experience.

Audience members will have the chance to participate in the magic by conducting the orchestra with wands, answering trivia questions, and enjoying other interactive elements. Whether you're a die-hard fan of the books and movies or simply a lover of enchanting melodies, this concert promises to be a magical evening for all. Join us for an unforgettable journey through the halls of Hogwarts and beyond, as conductor Ian Passmore leads the symphony in a celebration of J.K. Rowling's magical universe.

Ticket Price(s):

- $15 - Adult
- $13 - Seniors
- $5 - 21 and Under

Free to all kids who dress up in costume and register!

Free Bus Transportation!

A bus to/from Albemarle from Salisbury will be offered to the first 56 people who meet us with their Symphony tickets in the parking lot near BIG LOTS on East Innes Street by 6pm on 10/19. (Please DO NOT go to Keppel Auditorium)

Bring your season ticket or buy yours online before coming to get a free ride to the concert!

Register for Free Tickets
Here!

Purchase
Tickets
Here!

